Archpriest John Memorich, Rector
Orthodox Church in America, Diocese of the Midwest

Dear Friends of Archangel Michael Church:

We are very excited to announce our upcoming event on November 22nd - Baba's Kitchen.

During this event, we will be showcasing homemade foods and baked goods. You can expect to find Halupki (stuffed cabbage), Pierogi, Chicken Paprikas, Beef Stroganoff, and Halushka (cabbage and noodles). And we haven't forgotten dessert - there will be cookies and nut roll! We are happy to tell you that we are using authentic recipes so you can be sure the food is truly ethnic.

As a friend of our Church community, we'd love to invite you to join us. In addition, we need some extra help to make sure everything goes smoothly.

Would you please consider providing a donation of a gift basket to be raffled during the event? If you are unable to assemble a basket, a cash donation would be appreciated to prepare a basket in your name.

With this help, we can ensure that the Archangel Michael Charity Fund can be sustained into 2026. The charity fund is far reaching, including Saint Herman's House of Hospitality in Cleveland, Zoe House in Parma, St. Tikhon's Seminary, and St. Vladimir's youth camp. Many other organizations are also recipients from this fund.

Please contact Sharon Glagola, 440-263-2862, Sharonglagola@gmail.com or Donna Tesar, 216- 401-2834, Donnatesar@gmail.com to make arrangements for your donation.

With sincere, thanks in advance,

The Baba's at Archangel Michael Orthodox Church
